Subject: Organization of Investor Education Program at Amaltas University Campus by Franklin Templeton

As part of our efforts to promote financial literacy and investor awareness among our staff and students, we are pleased to announce that Franklin Templeton, a leading global investment management company, will be organizing an Investor Education Program at our university campus.

Program Details:

- Date: 03/02/2025
- Time: 2.30 pm
- Venue: Mayank Hall
- Topic: "Investor Education and Financial Literacy"
- Speaker: Vishal Rathor, Franklin Templeton]

The program aims to educate participants on the basics of investing, risk management, and financial planning. It will cover topics such as:

- Introduction to investing and financial markets
- Types of investments and their risks
- Diversification and portfolio management
- Retirement planning and wealth creation
- Avoiding common investment mistakes

All staff members, including faculty, administrative, and support staff, are invited to attend the program. Students are also welcome to attend.

Benefits:

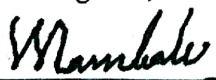

By attending this program, you will gain a better understanding of investing and financial planning, which will help you make informed decisions about your financial future. You will also have the opportunity to interact with the speaker and ask questions.

We believe that this program will be highly beneficial for all staff members and students, and we look forward to your participation. If you have any questions or need more information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.
